MUTART

MUSEO DEL TARTUFO DELLE COLLINE SAMMINIATESI

Via IV Novembre, 20 - San Miniato

Tel. 0571 42745 - www.mutartsanminiato.it

Il Museo del Tartufo delle Colline Samminiatesi racconta la storia della terra in cui nascono i tartufi più grandi del mondo. E' certamente una terra generosa, che produce tartufi dodici mesi l'anno, unica al mondo per quello più pregiato, il bianco Tuber Magnatum Pico; l' area tartufigena più fruttuosa della Toscana con il suo centro nella città di San Miniato, comprendente 30 comuni tra le province di Pisa e di Firenze. E' terra di record: qui è stato trovato il tartufo bianco più grande del mondo, il più costoso e il più grande del XXI secolo. A partire dagli ultimi decenni dell'800 i cercatori percorrono, con i loro cani, i sentieri di questo territorio e da più di un secolo il tartufo è commercializzato e trasformato. A San Miniato, dal 1969, viene organizzata la più antica Mostra Mercato del Tartufo Bianco della Toscana e, dal 1982 i tartufai di queste colline hanno dato vita all' "Associazione Tartufai delle Colline Samminiatesi" la più antica e più numerosa della nostra regione. Nel 1990 San Miniato insieme ad altri dieci comuni fondò l' "Associazione Nazionale Città del Tartufo", che conta oggi oltre settanta associati. Il Museo del Tartufo delle Colline Samminiatesi fa parte del Sistema Museale Integrato di San Miniato ed è uno spazio di esperienze iconico-visive, sensoriali, culturali di grande valore.
